

Restoration Contracting

IERS is an experienced, full-service restoration contractor specializing in restoring drastically disturbed sites and degraded ecosystem functions from the ground up on some of the most challenging and sensitive upland, riparian, and wetland sites in the Sierra Nevada. Our treatment approach focuses on long-term sustainability and is tailored to the unique conditions of each site. Our commitment to monitoring and adaptive management enables us to continually refine and improve the efficacy of our restoration techniques.

Specific Services

- Soil Investigation
- Erosion Control
- Steep Slope Restoration/Stabilization
- Wetland Restoration
- Riparian Restoration
- Restoration Irrigation Design and Installation
- BMP Design and Implementation
- Stormwater Pollution Prevention Plans (SWPPPs)
- Regulatory Compliance
- Agency Facilitation

Selected Projects

- West Fork of Martis Creek Riparian Restoration
- Ponderosa Ranch Restoration
- Squaw Creek Erosion Control Program (Squaw Valley)
- TH-2 Martis Valley Wetlands Restoration
- US Forest Service On-Call Restoration Contract

Slope along Highway 267 at Northstar-at-Tahoe, before treatment (2005) and after treatment (2008).

